

Museum of Brands – Garden Volunteer

Summary

The Museum of Brands, Packaging and Advertising is a small, friendly museum of consumer culture in West London. It is an incredibly exciting time for the museum having just moved into a new, larger premises in 2015, and with plenty more thrilling developments in the coming months. The new museum has a fantastic outdoor space and community garden, for which we are now seeking green fingered volunteers to help us maintain. This role is based at The Museum of Brands, Packaging and Advertising, Lancaster Road, London, W11 1QT.

Garden Volunteers will support the Museum Gardener with the following:

- Keeping the garden tidy;
- Watering the garden;
- Plant care activities, for which you will be trained on a task-by-task basis.

We're looking for people who:

- Enjoy practical tasks;
- Enjoy working outdoors;
- Have excellent team-working skills;
- Have good communication skills in spoken English;
- Have an interest in plants and gardening.

Training and support

We have an induction process, during which we give Volunteers the information we believe they need to enjoy their time with us. Training is mainly 'on the job', supported by the Museum Gardener. Volunteers are given regular feedback and we remain open to suggestions on how we can improve the volunteer experience.

Availability

We are looking for people who would like to donate a half day (4 hours) on Tuesdays or Thursdays. Please see application form for details.

How to apply

Please complete an application form and email this to us with a copy of your CV.
